I am the Builder of castle and hall,

And I lay the stone
in the temple wall.

Dedication

To the Builders:

- to those who build our buildings
- to those who build our character
- to those who build our fund of knowledge
- to those who build our moral code

Class of 1954

Some years ago we started our climb up "Education Hill." At that time the year 1954 seemed a long way off; but here it is, and here we are—the class of 1954.

For most of us seniors this has been a year of mixed emotions. We felt proud to be the seniors of the school, and we enjoyed the activities reserved for seniors. Still, as we studied and planned for our future, we began to wonder what life would be like after we left Senior High.

In the fall we eagerly turned our attention to our new courses, football, Homecoming, and the picture which would do us justice in the "Echo." Seniors were soon shouldering "News" staff and "Echo" jobs.

During the winter we followed the basketball team; and, along with studying, we began to think about a future job or to look for the college which would suit our needs. We chose our calling cards and ordered graduation announcements. Then the day came when we were measured so that our graduation gowns wouldn't trip us as we reached for our diplomas or the mortar board slide over one eye.

Will we ever forget the thrill of anticipation as we waited to hear whether our names would be called as new members of the National Honor Society or Quill and Scroll?

With spring came the music contests and festival, spring sport, and the Junior-Senior Prom. Formals marked the Prom with glamor and gave us the sophistication of young socialites. Cases of pre-graduation dithers became more numerous and acute as the calendar brought us close to Baccalaureate and Commencement.

The Senior class officers are Virginia Walser, treasurer; Joanne Woodall, vice-president; Shirley Larson, president; Jo Jameson, secretary; and Lois Tangeman, secretary.

Seniors in Action

Class of 1955

Beginnings are joyous, endings are sad; but the very essence of serenity is the middle ground. In the junior year at Senior High most of us are at ease for the first time, for we are accustomed to the machinery of our school. Upperclassmen no longer adopt a superior air when they accost us, and yet the trials of the senior year are too far in the future to concern us.

In looking back over our junior year, we find our ambitions and accomplishments were often synonymous.

Among them was our winning the first prize for our Homecoming float. The purchase of class rings and the production of the Junior-Senior Prom numbered among our prime thrills. As juniors some of us had the opportunity of being elected to Boys' State, and the president of the Student Council was chosen from among us. In our junior year the athletes had a better chance to play on the varsity teams.

Familiarity with our surroundings and the many firsts of junior year were responsible for the pleasant and unforgettable memories of the class of 1955.

Seated: Sandra Matz, secretary; Jean Peterson, secretary; Carol Pearce, vice-president. Standing: Milton R. Reisen, president; Otto Blerl, treasurer.

Class of 1956

The sophomore year was the beginning of a new phase of our life — a time of hurried growing-up.

The scared feeling experienced during the first few days of school soon disappeared as we became accepted members of the big family at Senior. During the first few months of school, we participated in the Ticket Campaign, Homecoming, Variety Show, election of class officer and Student Council representatives, football practice, committee appointments, and club initiations. All the events mounted up—along with new classes, new teachers, and new classmates — to give us a sense of adventure supplanting the fear that we experienced when we were first admitted to those seemingly cold, stark walls.

We sophomores had a get-acquainted party in gym early in the fall. Our first chance to present some of our talents came when three members of the first play cast were sophomores. The Christmas decorations in the cafeteria were our project. We ushered and decorated for Baccalaureate in June.

Band

Under the direction of Floyd G. Rundle, the Senior High band makes many outstanding appearances during the year. This year, the band resplendent in bright new uniforms, performed a half-time show at each home football game; and also it travelled to Iowa City to perform for one game.

For basketball games and pep assemblies, band members divided into three pep bands—R, A, and M. Judy Mabee, Roger Raine, and Tom Reilly were elected pep band directors.

Floyd G. Rundle, director

Cornet: Harlan Doty; Jim Langman; Roger Raine; John Daniels; Nancy Timmons; John Landgraf; Harvey Frederick; Lee Wittman; Tom Buelow; Hans Schwantje; Jan Seipp; Lee Stevens; Tom Ward.

Janet Rose finishes posting some of the map projects and cartoons which help to make American History a favorite course for many students.

History and Latin

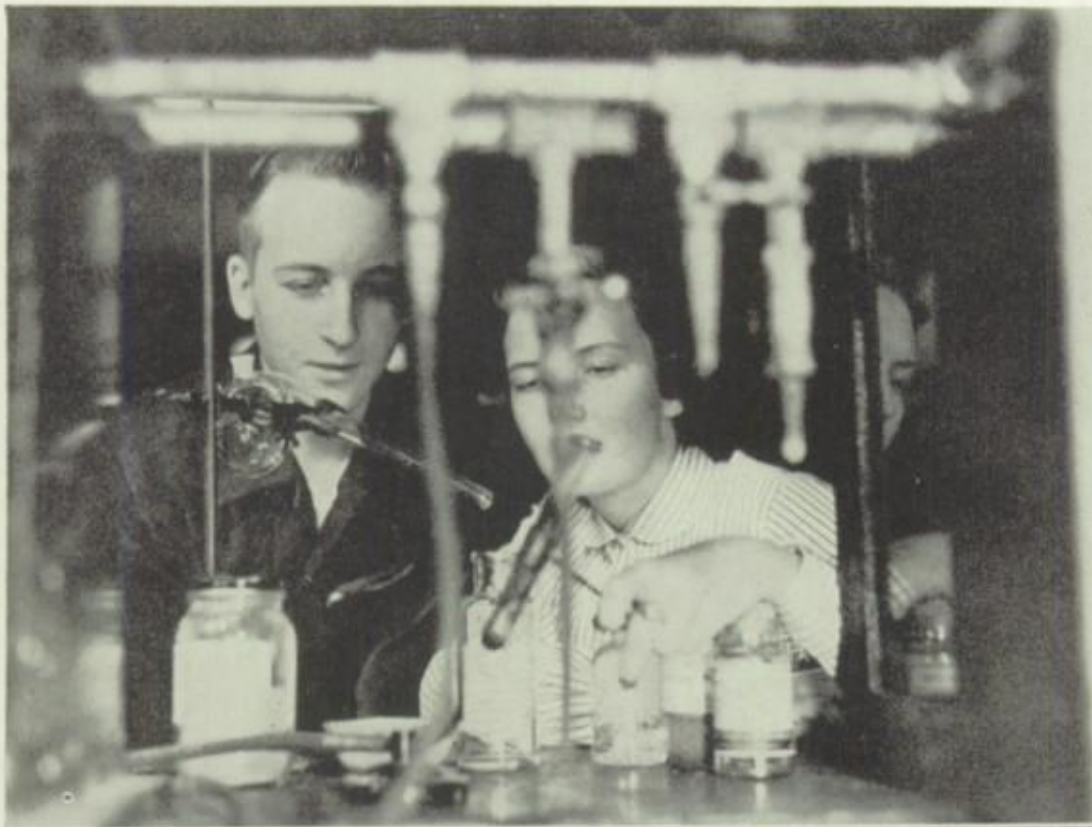

The history department includes many courses—World History, American History, American Government, and Problems of Democracy—three of which are compulsory subjects. Highlights of the week in American History and Problems of Democracy are reading the American Observer and the Senior Scholastic for up-to-the-minute accounts of national and international affairs. Map projects and cartoons give additional variety to the assignments.

Latin, supposedly a dead language, lives on for the students who take the course. Through Latin derivatives, famous Latin phrases, Roman mythology, and Latin abbreviations the students find that Latin lives in many ways even today.

Lois Riedel and Randy Judge discover some interesting facts from their Latin derivatives.

Sciences

Seen through a maze of gas jets and bottles, George Robey and Pat Rohde are busily completing their laboratory work for Chemistry.

Randy Apel, Jim Peterson, Ron Barton, Paul Claussen, Lee Kuska, Bill Nagel, Floyd Wharton, and Merlin Kieffer apply the many devices used in Physics class to their experiments.

Mike Klein, Reid Beddow, Janet Marmis, Tom Buelow, Harriet Teeters, Nancy Brown, Sam White, and Sandra Hammerand study the pleasant interior of a Rana catesbiana—frog.

Art and Shop

Merlin Kaune, Norma Stevens, Wayne Patterson, Ralph Curler, and John Meehan work putting up decorations for Christmas. The art classes cooperate with the promotions committee in decorating for special occasions.

In woodworking class, Gerald Loney and Jack Kieffer put the finishing touches on a new cabinet for the Photography Club's darkroom.

George Haas and Ferd Reinhardt learn the intricate parts of one of the many machines in the machine shop.

Nancy Simmons practices for competition in extemporaneous speaking.

Members of the speech classes participated in several contests this year, traveling to Cedar Rapids for the Coe Invitational Contest and taking part in the Iowa Forensic League and Iowa State Speech Association contests. The basic speech class studied the fundamentals of public speaking, while the speech arts classes spent their time on different aspects of public speaking. The debate class this year investigated the possible merits of electing the President of the United States by direct vote of the people.

Speech and Mathematics

The solid geometry class concentrates on proving a theorem shown on a screen by the opaque projector.

As we all know, Mathematics plays an important part in every phase of our lives. Senior's Math Department is expertly and modernly guided by Miss Alice White, department head.

Through the use of various "gadgets"—tinker toys, a transparent globe, a seven foot slide rule, and numerous other innovations, Miss White endeavors to distribute her vast mathematical knowledge among her fledging Einsteins.

Included in the home economics department are courses in clothing, foods, home management, and principles of nursing.

In clothing the girls study the fundamentals of sewing, style, and color, and learn to distinguish quality of textiles.

The foods course emphasizes planning nutritious meals in relation to the size and income of the family. The tantalizing aromas wafted through the halls prove that the girls also make practical application of their skills.

The home management classes studied the furnishing and care of a home, and the girls taking the principles of nursing course learned what to do in case of sickness or accident and how to care for patients at home.

The girls in the foods class prepare some of their specialties.

Home Economics and Commercial

The typing class practices diligently for the all-important goal of 60 words a minute.

The commercial department offers a student knowledge and skills necessary for a future business career. Commercial training at Senior High is comprehensive, covering four specific fields: general clerical, bookkeeping, stenographic, and retail selling.

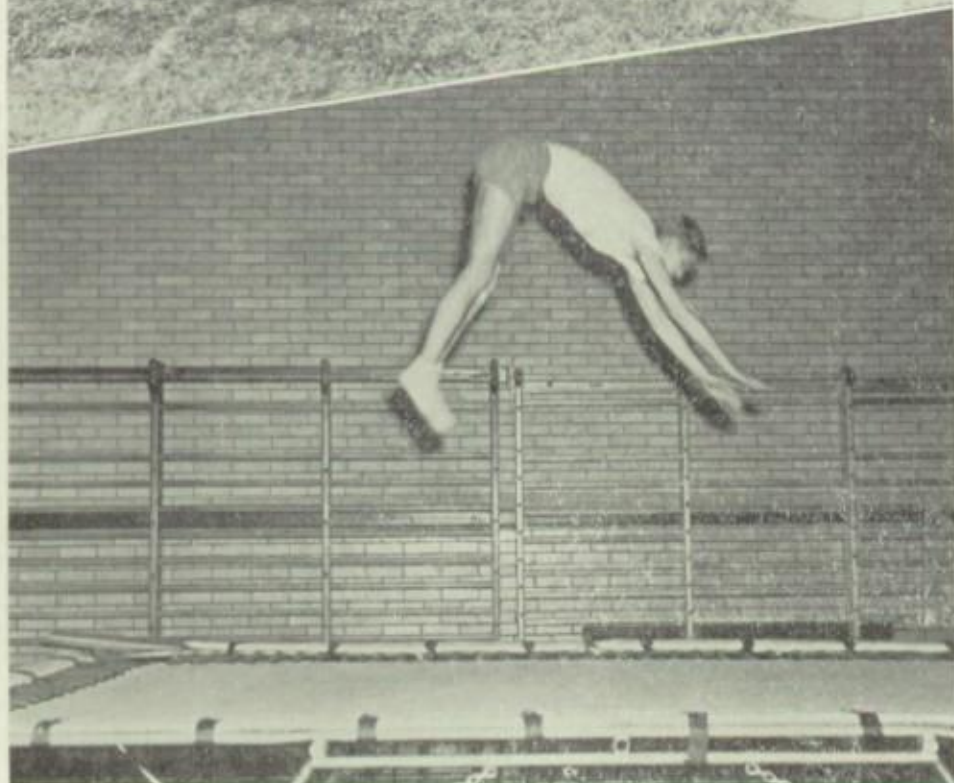

Guidance and Physical Education

Students have three years of guidance classes at Senior. One of the most valuable aspects of the course is a series of tests designed to reveal vocational aptitudes.

A game of speedball is always a welcomed relief from regular classes.

Both boys and girls had an opportunity to try their skill on the trampoline, a new addition to the gym classes this year.

Languages

The French Class take one last look at their work before Miss Nelson starts that all important test.

The Spanish Class watches Miss Nelson give the exact interpretation for that one sentence no one managed to translate in their assignment.

The German Class eagerly watches some travel films on Germany to supplement their regular daily work.

To be eligible for election for the National Honor Society, a student must rank in upper one-third of his class in scholarship, leadership, and service. Front Row: Nancy Simmons, secretary first semester; Jo Jameson; Kay Nordenson, president first semester; Lois Fox, treasurer first semester; Paul Claussen; John Carlton. Second Row: Barbara Couchman, secretary second semester; Janet Rose; Barbara Guns; Jean Ann Datisman; Jack Nora, president second semester; Jack Landschulz. Third Row: Tom Haye, vice-president second semester; George Robey; Bill Filter; Ward Peterson, treasurer second semester; Jim Kaufman; Tom Reilly, vice-president first semester.

National Honor and Quill and Scroll

To be eligible for election for the Quill and Scroll Society, a student must be nominated by the adviser of the "News" or the "Echo" and accepted by the national organization. First Row: John Carlton; David Adams; Roberta Bock; Alice DewBrittain; Betsy Moore; Marilyn Riedl; Shirley Reinhardt; Judith Lee; Ken Gordon. Second Row: Jim McFarlane; Tom Reilly; Barbara Couchman; Dorothy Schmidt; Delores Pierce; Pat Rohde; Jack Landschulz; Barbara Guns; Wayne Kamm.

The members of the Student Council meet everyday during the fourth period to frame the laws of our school. Seated: Barbara Hemmer, corresponding secretary; Virginia Zollars, recording secretary; Barbara Couchman, president; David Adams, vice-president; Bill Kelly, treasurer. Standing: H. J. Kintzinger, adviser; Tom Ward; Jack Willey; Milt Boyes; Jim Kaufman; Shirley Walser; Sally Justman; Sharon Bergquist.

Student Council

The Student Council is the legislative branch of our student government. Each class elects four of its members to the council which in turn selects and supervises the various working committees of the school. Senior's student council has been affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils for the past eight years. This year the school was represented at the state meeting of the Iowa State Association of Student Councils by four students: Barbara Couchman, Milt Boyes, Virginia Zollars, and Jim Kaufman.

Alice Lubs, Duane Christopherson, and Bob Kline prepared for the Home-coming celebration.

Promotions Committee

Under the direction of Lee Polley, adviser, the Promotions Committee is responsible for, among other duties, the football ticket campaign, publicity for all-school plays and music concerts, the Variety Show and football programs for Homecoming and Dads' Night.

The committee meets fourth period on Monday, Wednesday and Friday in room 169. It is composed of four seniors, four juniors and two sophomores—whose appointment is made by the Student Council on the basis of good scholarship, citizenship and service.

The members of the Promotions Committee are Leo Jaeger, Norma Stevens, Duane Christopherson, Bob Kline, Catherine Herr, Bruce Schwaegler, Alice Lubs, and Dorl Droessler. Not pictured: Susan Glab, and Lois Riedel.

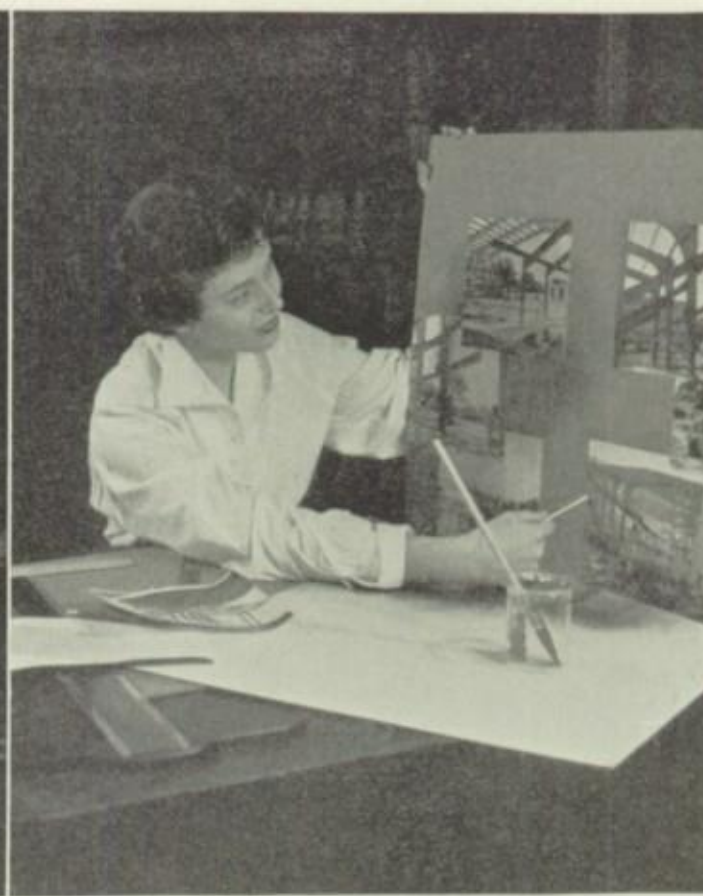

Bob Kline, Alice Lubs, Norma Stevens, Leo Jaeger, and Katherine Herr help to decorate on the trees which deck our halls at Christmas time.

This year's winners for the Athletic Ticket campaign were the following: First place: Sandra Hammerand; Jane Grouau. Second place: Rosalie Zuckerman; Sharon Bergquist. Third place: Ken Gordon and Tom Hays.

Echo Staff

Paul Claussen, Warren Powers, Lois Fox, copy editor, Nancy Simmons, Ann Young, and June Hill worked hard to compose all editorial material for this year's book.

The Editor-in-Chief of the 1954 Echo was Tom Reilly.

The Echo business staff, which solicits the outside subscribers, consisted of; Jean Datisman; Carol Bergquist; Nancy Haught; Lois Quade; Howard Finton; Joanne Woodall; Jim McFarlane; Judy Mabee; Barbara Guns; Ward Peterson; Arline Ayala; John Welu; Sandra Nesler; Marilyn Riedl; June Schueller.

This year's photographers, who took all the pictures in this book except for formal senior pictures, are Wayne Kamm, Bill Filter, and George Robey.

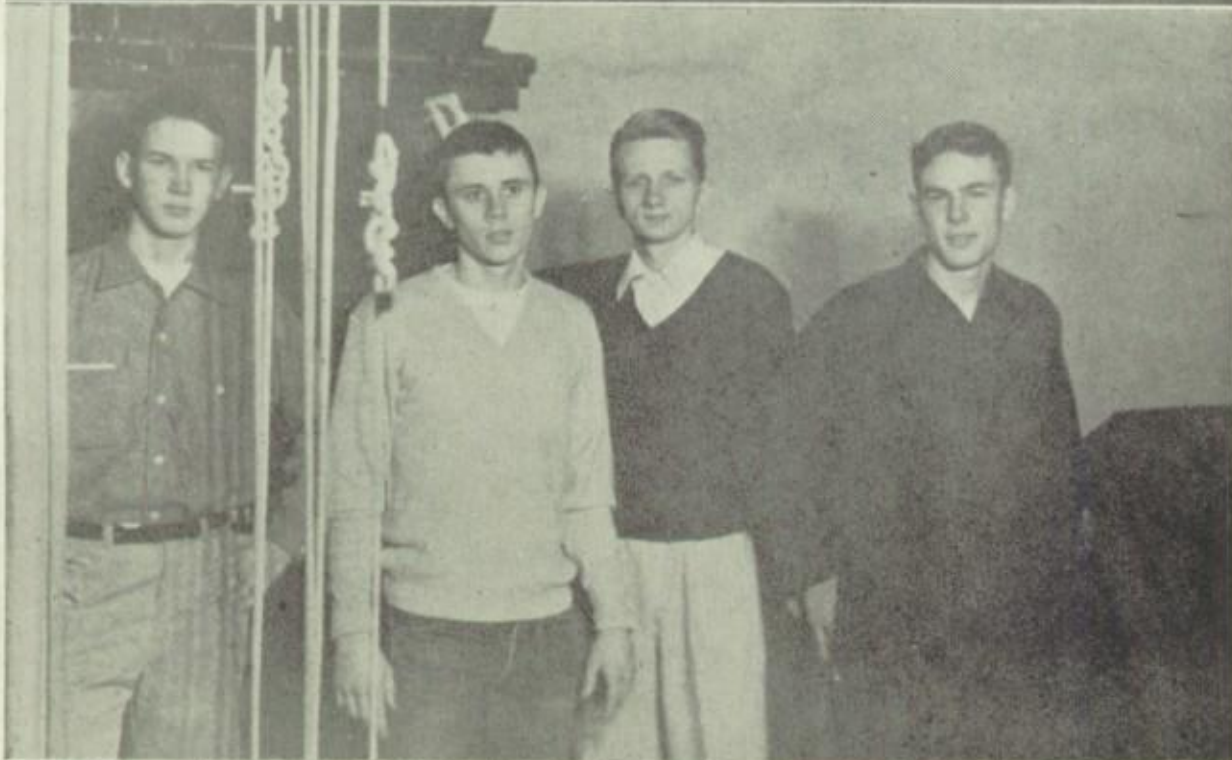

The Business Manager of the 1954 Echo was Barbara Guns.

Operating Crews

The Public Address Crew has charge of operating the microphones for all assemblies and school productions. The members are Ron Porter, George Kuse, Ken Rang, Don Olson, Ralph Lemmer, Bruce Randall, and Bill Posey.

The Stage Crew keeps the stage in operating order and sets the stage for all school production. The members are Reid Beddow, Karl Justman, Don Laube, and John Grice.

The Projectionists are in charge of keeping the audio-visual equipment in operating order. The members are Roger Frederick, Paul Coates, Floyd Wharton, Gerald Bazinette, Roger Riechmann, Bill Filter, Bill Boekholder.

News Staff

Organized Confusion

The "News," Senior's bi-weekly, four page publication, a member of the International Society of Quill and Scroll, the Iowa High School Scholastic Press Association, and the National Scholastic Press Association, has received All-American ratings almost consequentially since 1928.

The staff is composed of an editor-in-chief, associate editor, feature editor, sports editor, copy editor, business manager, and reporters. Under the direction of Miss Hildegard Stolteben, the staff learns the fundamentals of journalism and applies them to the "News."

Every other Thursday copies of the "News" are distributed to the student body. Other copies reach alumni in colleges, alumni in the service, and various schools whose papers in turn are sent to Senior High.

Bob Herzog, assistant coach, Harold Sweet, head coach, Dale Harris, line coach, Alex Naidenovich, assistant coach, comprised the Ram coaching staff.

Thom Gifford and Ken Gordon composed the Ram managerial staff.

Only three letterman, Jack Nora, John Hurlburt, and Tom Merritt, returned this season. The team's lack of experience was apparent in the unimpressive record of three wins and six losses. They could manage only a sixth place conference finish.

The Rams dropped their opener to Des Moines Roosevelt. They bounced back to break in- to the win column by trouncing Freeport. The oddity of this game was the scoring of two touchdowns by Frank Miller, a tackle.

At Waterloo the Rams were snowed under by a powerful East team.

The Red and Blue reached their peak for the Davenport battle. Playing at home, before a capacity crowd, they whipped the Blue Devils for the second consecutive year. Nora's passing and Merritt's running were outstanding.

Hampered by injuries to key men, the gridgers could not maintain their peak. The next game was lost to Cedar Rapids Wilson.

In the Homecoming contest the boys had the spirit but not the ability to override highly rated West Waterloo.

Iowa City, the M.V.C. champions and mythical State Champs, completely outclassed Senior in handing them their worst defeat. The season closed with a loss to Clinton.

Jack Nora and Frank Miller were all conference selections.

Can he make it?

Jack Nora dodges and darts away for a T.D.

Homecoming

Shirley Larson, or "Tiz" as she is more commonly known, was crowned Homecoming Queen at the assembly. "Tiz," a cheerleader during her three years at Senior, has been very active in sports and G.A.A. As a member of the student council for two years, she helped form many of the policies that guide our student government. She served as president of the senior class and participated in many club activities.

Golf

Building around a nucleus of Dave Zollars and Dave Adams, Coach John Orr guided the golf team to one of the most successful seasons in years. Along with Adams and Zollars, came Ken Gordon, Jack Landschulz, and Al Rehfeldt, who all turned in consistently dependable play.

The MVC meet saw the Rams finish third, and in the District meet, won by West Waterloo, we ran fourth. Our dual meet record was very fine, as we won six and lost two. The two losses came at the hands of Moline and Iowa City. In two triangular competitions the Ram linksmen got a third at Waterloo and a second at Loras, close on the heels of the winner—St. Ambrose.

The Rams reached their peak as they authored their only shutout of the season, crushing Loras—5-0.

The two top golfers of the year were Dave Zollars, with a nifty 83.6 average, and Dave Adams, who finished with 84.6 per 18 holes.

The 1953 Ram home course was the beautiful and spacious Dubuque Golf and Country Club.

Tennis

The team this year was probably the most inexperienced ever to represent Senior on the courts: only three boys had previously taken part in competitive tennis.

The season opened with a third place finish in the Waterloo Triangular meet. In dual meets the team won one while dropping six. The lone triumph was over Cedar Rapids Wilson, 7-0. The defeats came from the hands of Loras, Clinton, Iowa City, Moline, Davenport, and Oelwein. The M.V.C. tournament brought a tie for third place.

In state district tournament play the Rams copped second place. Jim Kelly, emerging victorious in the singles competition, was entitled to participate in the state meet held on the Grinnell College courts.

Combining speed, height, and reserve strength, John Orr's cagers compiled a record of 17 wins and 4 losses, tying a school record for games won in a season. For the first time in twenty-one years the Rams grabbed a share in the M.V.C. championship. Senior and Davenport were Co-Champs with identical 9 to 1 records in conference play.

In gaining their title share, the Rams dropped Clinton and Iowa City twice and defeated all four Cedar Rapids schools. The highlight of the year was the victory over Davenport before a sell-out crowd. The lone conference loss was administered by Davenport.

During the Christmas holiday the team traveled into Wisconsin and Illinois to bring back victories over Beloit and DeKalb.

In the District Tournament Senior drew Clinton, the game being played on Clinton's home floor. After beating Clinton twice during the regular season, Senior, unable to accomplish the trick a third time, was eliminated from further tourney competition.

Tom Haye, although playing under the handicap of an injury, led the well-balanced scoring attack. Haye, Merritt and Dean were chosen to the first team All City, with Nora being named to the second five.

At the season's close teammates elected Haye the most valuable player and Nora honorary captain.

Baseball

With only three returning letterman, Coach J. J. Nora found prospects for a successful campaign not too bright. Building around these boys, he nevertheless produced a winning combination. The team showed fine spirit as they compiled a respectable 9 and 3 record.

The season opened with a win over Miles on Jack Nora's one hit pitching performance. The Rams swept a double-header from Wilson and McKinley of Cedar Rapids, followed by a victory over Guttenburg.

Paul Claussen puts the tag on Bill Nagel in a practice session.

Champion handed out the first defeat.

A shutout defeat of always powerful Davenport resulted from a masterful two-hitter by Nora.

The sectional tournament took place for the first time on Senior's home diamond. The Rams entered play by beating Epworth 2 to 1 on a home run by Tom Haye, the teams leading hitter. Then the diamond men, playing St. Joseph's of Bellevue, were eliminated from further tourney competition in a close game, 3 to 2.

Returning to action, the Rams defeated Loras on a combination of good pitching and clutch hitting. The following week Loras evened the score by defeating Senior in a game decided in a one-sided 13 to 3 triumph.

At the close of the season Jack Nora and Jack Schaefer were elected honorary co-captains.

Track

Thirty-five boys answered the annual call for track candidates. During the course of the season all competed in interscholastic competition. The cindermen were hampered during the early stages of the season by bad weather and lack of indoor practice facilities.

In the MVC the Rams placed sixth in the indoor meet and fourth in the outdoor affair. In the State District class "AA" Senior captured third. The team traveled to LaCrosse, Wisconsin to compete in the Peacock Relays and came away with fourth place. Dubuque placed second in the Waterloo triangular, won by West High.

The thinclads bested Champion and Loras in a meet on Senior's track under the arcs. These night meets promoted great interest and attracted large crowds.

In dual meets Loras and Freeport were defeated. The Rams fell before Rock Island and Clinton.

Three new school records were established. Jon Johannson broke the record in the 440 yard dash, Tom Merritt in the 180 yard low hurdles, and Mike Mercer in the football throw.

Jon Johannson was the high point winner, with Mike Mercer second. Seventeen major letters were awarded, with many going to underclassmen.

Up and Over

Cross Country, a sport which receives little recognition, stresses building resistance through running. The members of the team report for practice sessions in the fall. This year the team members were Ralph Curler, Karl Justman, John Deckert, Eric Schaeffer, Thor Anderson, Bill Streng, Lowell Pettit, Jim Peterson, and Frank Larson.

Cross Country and Cheerleaders

Ann Reider, Shirley Larson, Kent Jecklin, and Cecily Freyhage composed this year's Ram cheerleading staff. The group worked hard to formulate new cheers and made a striking appearance at every football and basketball game.

Plays

"Family Circle" and "The Night of January 16th" were the two all school productions presented this year. "Family Circle" showed incidents from the life of actress, Cornelia Otis Skinner. "The Night of January 16th" centered action around a court room scene involving a murder trial. The striking novelty of this play came when the jury, selected from the audience, returned a verdict of guilty.

The cast for "Family Circle" consisted of Roberta Coutant, Lesslie Wagner, Tom Reilly, Melinda Mercer, Betsy Moore, Donald Laube, Susan Gordon, June Schueller, Willard Gallart, Reid Beddow, Robert Davis, and Faye Sherman. The cast for "The Night of January 16th"—one of the largest casts ever to perform at Senior—was composed of Sylvia Baldwin, Betsy Moore, Arnold Jaeger, Willard Gallart, Tom Reilly, Carol Pearce, William Streng, Joanne Woodall, Donald Laube, John Welu, Melinda Mercer, Bob Kline, Milton Boyes, Marilyn Riedl, Mavis Anderson, Ward Peterson, Nancy Simmons, Hans Schwantje, Jim McFarlane, June Schueller, Don Olson, Jerry Renne, Jim Briggs, and Don Massey.

Music Festival

The 1953 Music Festival was held in Dubuque. The two day gathering consisted of rehearsals, ten minute breaks, concerts, a dance, and a lot of wholesome fun. The Dubuque musicians played host to musicians from Clinton, Iowa, and Freeport, Illinois.
